The Training and Placement Cell of Sri Sivani College of Pharmacy has organized a special workshop on the significance of capability to speak with confidence which is an integral part of communication from 08.02.2022 to 10.02.2022. This well-framed program was initiated by our respected principal and TPO with their motivational speech.

In these sessions students learnt about strategies that can improve your confidence in communication and language skills, so that they can express themselves clearly and effectively in any situation which is a key factor for many jobs now-a-days. At the end of this valedictory program, a few of our students gave their feedback about how this session helped them to gain confidence while speaking.

The session ended with vote of thanks by Training and Placement Officer.
